MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF DELHI

NOTIFICATION

Delhi, the 24th March 1962

No. F. 3(4)/61-Law-Corp.—The following bye-laws made by the Municipal Corporation of Delhi, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of item (5) under the heading "L. Bye-laws relating to miscellaneous matters" under sub-section (1) of section 481 of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 (66 of 1957), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 483 of the said Act, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These bye-laws may be called the Delhi Municipal Corporation (Job-porters) Bye-laws, 1961.

(2) They shall come into force w.e.f. 1st April 1962.

2. Definitions.—In these bye-laws,—

(i) "Job-porter" means a person who carries goods for hire or for reward.

(ii) "Section" means a section of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act, 1957 (66 of 1957).

3. Job-porters to be licensed.—No person shall work as a job-porter in any area in Delhi, other than the area within the precincts of a railway station, without a licence granted for the purpose by the Commissioner.

4. Conditions relating to grant of licences.—No licence shall be granted under these bye-laws unless the applicant—

(a) has applied to the Commissioner for the grant of the licence in the form prescribed and has attached with the application two copies of his recent photograph and a certificate from a reliable person to the effect that the applicant is personally known to him for not less than two years immediately preceding the date of application and that the particulars given in the application are correct to the best of his knowledge;

- (b) has paid such fees as are fixed from time to time under subsection (2) of section 430 and such other charges as are leviable under these bye-laws;
- (c) has completed the age of eighteen years;
- (d) is well acquainted with the principal streets and places of interest in Delhi;
- (e) is physically and mentally fit in all respects to act as a job-porter.

5. Conditions to be complied with by the licensee.—Every licence issued or renewed under these bye-laws shall be subject to the following conditions, namely, that the licensee—

- (a) shall at all times while waiting for hire or during the period of his duties as a job-porter or while attending the court of any Municipal Magistrate, affix the badge supplied to him under bye-law 7 on his person in such a manner that it can be easily noticed;
- (b) shall, while on duty, wear clothes of such colour, design and shape as may be prescribed by the Commissioner from time to time;
- (c) shall deposit at the nearest police station all goods or property left with him by the owner thereof negligently or by mistake;
- (d) shall not demand or receive more than the maximum hire permissible under the scale prescribed by the Commissioner from time to time;
- (e) shall not carry more than 94 Kilograms at a time;
- (f) shall take proper care of the badge and shall not alter, deface or obliterate it.

6. Validity of licence.—No licence shall be valid unless—

- (a) it has been signed by the Commissioner or by a municipal officer duly authorised by him,
- (b) it bears the left thumb impression of the licensee at the proper place, and
- (c) a copy of the recent photograph of the licensee is affixed on it.

7. Metal badge.—Along with every licence, a metal badge of such design as the Commissioner may prescribe from time to time shall be supplied to the licensee on payment of Re. 1/- or such charge as may be prescribed by him from time to time.

8. Expiry of Licenses.—Every licence granted under these bye-laws shall expire on the thirty-first day of March next ensuing unless it is renewed on or before that date.

9. Licences not transferable.—No licence granted or renewed under these bye-laws shall be transferable.

10. Renewal of Licences.—Every licence granted under these bye-laws may be renewed for such further periods not exceeding twelve months at a time.

11. Application for renewal of licences.—An application for renewal of licence issued under these bye-laws shall be made in the form prescribed at least ninety days before the expiry of the licence and shall be disposed of before the expiry of the licence and if the application is not so disposed of within that period the licence shall be deemed to have been renewed.

12. Conditions relating to renewal of licences.—No licence shall be renewed unless the applicant—

- (a) has paid such fees as are fixed from time to time under section 430,
- (b) continues to be physically and mentally fit in all respects to work as a job-porter.

13. Return of licence and badge.—Every licensee shall return his licence and the metal badge to the Commissioner within a reasonable time after the expiry of the term of licence or where the licence has been suspended or revoked under section 430 after such suspension or revocation.

14. Penalties.—A licensee who contravenes any provision of these bye-laws or any condition of the licence shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
